

UCLA LECTURE SERIES: JEWISH PRAGUE

(1998)

Jewish Prague was the subject of the most recent lecture of The "1939" Club's Great European Jewish Cities in the Modern Age. The lecture, in cooperation with the UCLA Center for Jewish Studies, was delivered at UCLA on March 15, 1998, by Professor Hillel Kieval who is currently Professor of History and Stroum Professor of Jewish Studies at the University of Washington in Seattle. He is a specialist in modern anti-Semitism. He is the author of The Making of Czech Jewry: National Conflict and Jewish Society in Bohemia (Oxford University Press, 1988), Languages of Community: The Historical Experience of Czech Jewry, 1780-1918 (forthcoming, University of California Press), and Blood Inscriptions: Explorations into the Modern Ritual Murder Trail (also forthcoming).

Professor Kieval has been named to the Gloria M. Goldstein Chair in Jewish History and Thought at Washington University in St. Louis.

Previous cities highlighted were Vienna, Vilna, Budapest, Warsaw and Berlin.
